Christ Among Us

The power that belief can exert is crystallised for me in a favourite fable. A monastery fell on hard times, the story goes, with the monks back-biting & in constant disagreement. The abbot was close to despair till one day, seeking respite in the forest nearby, he came upon a rabbi at prayer. The rabbi laid aside his conversation with God to ask why the abbot looked so miserable.

The two spent some time lamenting the situation at the monastery. “So what is to be done?”, asked the abbot. The rabbi confided that he was in possession of a secret from God, a secret that the abbot could share with the monks only when all were together, & once spoken the secret could never be referred to again. So what was the secret? “One of you is the long hoped-for Messiah”, said the rabbi.

Back at the monastery, the abbot gathered the monks, explained the conditions and whispered what he had heard from the rabbi. Within days, life at the monastery was transformed. Since no one knew which monk was the Messiah, all were accorded the utmost respect.

Entrance Antiphon

See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

Entrance Hymn

No 468 (Gather) I Heard The Voice of Jesus

Opening Prayer

Show favour, O Lord, to your servants and mercifully increase the gifts of your grace, that, made fervent in hope, faith and charity, they may be ever watchful in keeping your commands.

First Reading: Genesis 18: 1-10

The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. Abraham looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. He said, "My lord, if I find favour with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said." And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes." Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate. They said to him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" And he said, "There, in the tent." Then one said, "I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son."

The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

Response to the Psalm: 6:00pm & 10:30pm

No 74 (Gather) The Lord has done great things for us

Second Reading: Colossians 1: 24-28

I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is Christ whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Happy are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 10: 38-42

Now as Jesus and his disciples went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me." But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."

The Bible - a mini-series called The Bible premiered Tuesday 16 July 2013 on Channel 9 at 9pm. This was the first in a 10 part series over the next few weeks. This mini-series may be of interest to you!

Letter from our Sister Parish in Railaco: Sister Rita writes telling us of the plans for an expanded Jesuit presence in the Secondary School in Railaco. It's amazing to think that it was the vision of some St Canice's parishioners nearly ten years ago to develop this school in the mountains outside Dili, and ongoing contribution that made it possible to build. Please read the letter on our Parish webpage in News and Events: www.stcanice.org.au

Parish Notices

Feast Day of St Ignatius founder of the Jesuits, falls on 31 July and will be celebrated at the 10:30 Mass on Sunday 4 August 2013. Our parish community provides opportunities for us to become involved with a much wider community - the needy, asylum seekers, homeless and aborigines. We have the opportunity here at St Canice's to become truly involved in 'The Ignatian Way' of living our Faith. In a recent homily, Pope Francis reminds us "To encounter God, it's necessary, to kiss the wounds of Jesus through those who are hungry, poor, sick and incarcerated." To understand the life of St Ignatius better, please read the story on the front page of the Parish website. In addition to a special liturgy, our morning tea will also be a celebration of the feast day. All are encouraged to participate in both.

Election Statement: Australia's Catholic Bishops have produced an election statement to focus attention on some key issues of vital concern to the Australian community. You can find the statement here: www.catholicvote.org.au and download it as a PDF or to your iPhone, iPad or Android device. A paper copy can be printed for you at the parish office upon request.

Servers Sought: The Parish Pastoral Council is seeking a wider group involved as altar servers at our weekday and weekend Masses, both women and men. Volunteers should discuss their availability with Father Chris. Appropriate training will be arranged.

Planned Giving. As we approach the end of the financial year we are getting the envelopes ready for the next financial year. Some people have elected to contribute by direct debit, therefore we don't require as many envelopes. Because of this we have reduced the number of envelopes we purchase and as a result we have changed some of your the envelope numbers. Everything else remains the same. We have also had a bit of a hic-cup and lost the details for envelope number 44. Would the person using that envelope please contact Elizabeth or Michael in the parish office so we can process your tax receipt. Our apologies for this problem. Envelopes for next year are on the table at the back of the church.

Celebrate World Youth Day in Sydney on 28 July! Join the Sydney pilgrims in Rio by celebrating World Youth Day on 28 July in Sydney. Get together with friends to make your own pilgrimage, beginning at 8am from the tomb of our Aussie Saint, Mary MacKillop, walking across the Sydney Harbour Bridge to arrive at the oldest church in Sydney – St Benedict's, Broadway. Watch a live telecast of the prayer vigil with Pope Francis, direct from Rio Di Janerio, including talks, testimonies and music from Dr Robert Tilley and Gary Pinto. Celebrate with a Brazilian feast and spend time in prayer with Adoration and Mass. Catch up with friends, make new ones, and enjoy a day of pilgrimage, prayer, food and fun!
