Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Signs of Hope

We mark today's World Day of Migrants and Refugees in the shadow of the looming federal election with both sides attempting to outbid each other in the harshness of their response to the growing arrival of asylum seekers.

Mons. Gerard Hanna has issued the following on behalf of the Australian bishops:

As a matter of urgency, I write in what may truly be a defining time in our national identity.

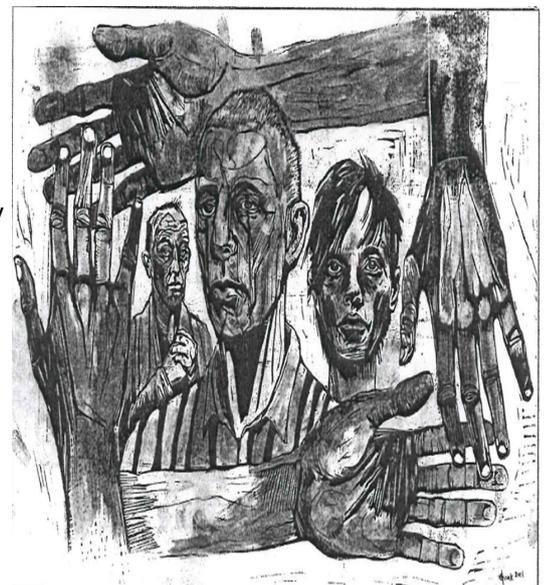

As our government begins enforcing a new offshore detention policy we are compelled, I believe, to reflect seriously on how these policies reflect on us – Catholic Australian people – and if in fact we wish our representatives to act in this way on our behalf.

How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help? 1 John 3:17

The new resettlement arrangements with Papua New Guinea are based on the premise that it is wrong for people fleeing from persecution to seek asylum in Australia. This is fundamentally untrue. The policy also asks the people of Papua New Guinea to not only show a level of generosity far beyond their economic means, but also to welcome these refugees in a way that we ourselves are not willing to do. This action is demeaning to everyone involved.

We have the duty as members of one human family to help those who arrive on our shores seeking asylum and strive with all our resources to assist them no matter how inconvenient this may prove to be.

Pope Francis recently said: "The 'other' is no longer a brother or sister to be loved, but simply someone who disturbs my life and my comfort. In this globalized world, we have fallen into globalized indifference. We have become used to the suffering of others; it doesn't concern me; it's none of my business." Hope is a major force of motivation driving refugees to endure and continue their journey. In faith they look to us as people who can fulfil their legitimate hopes. In this Year of Faith, we note that people who are migrants/refugees place their faith and hope in us; pray that we will be inspired to fully live our Christian commitment and open our hearts and allow the love of God to abide in us. Fr Chris

Entrance Antiphon

Turn your ear, O Lord and answer me: save the servant who trusts in you, my God. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

Entrance Hymn

No 421 (Gather) Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Opening Prayer

O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world, our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found.

First Reading: Isaiah 66: 18-21

Thus says the Lord: "For I know their works and their thoughts, and I am coming to gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and shall see my glory, and I will set a sign among them. "From them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Put, and Lud—which draw the bow—to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. "They shall bring all your kindred from all the nations as an offering to the Lord, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem", says the Lord, "just as the Israelites bring a grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the Lord." "And I will also take some of them as priests and as Levites", says the Lord.

Response 8:30am and 10.30am

Go out to all the world and tell the Good News

Response to the Psalm: 6:00pm

Go out to all the world; and tell the Good News

Second Reading: Hebrews 12: 5-7. 11-13

And you have forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as children — "My child, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, or lose heart when you are punished by him; for the Lord disciplines those whom he loves, and chastises every child whom he accepts." Endure trials for the sake of discipline. God is treating you as children; for what child is there whom a parent does not discipline? Now, discipline always seems painful rather than pleasant at the time, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the way, the truth and the life, says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 13: 22-30

Jesus went through one town and village after another, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" Jesus said to them, "Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. "When once the owner of the house has got up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us', then in reply he will say to you, 'I do not know where you come from.' Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.'" But the Lord will say, 'I do not know where you come from; go away from me, all you evildoers!' "There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrown out. Then people will come from east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the kingdom of God. "Indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Offertory Hymn:

No 199 (Gather) Bread of Life

Communion Antiphon:

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord! you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.

Communion Reflection:

No 456 (Gather) Seek Ye First

Recessional:

No 398 (Gather) Sing a New Song, Sing a New Song (R Connolly)
