Nothing to Fear

My failures & my wretchedness keep me from any manner of self-exaltation; but they do not weaken my trust, my trust in God, who places his gentle hand over me, holding me & giving me strength.

Pope John XXIII

Overlook Much, Correct a Little

Those with good intentions, therefore, have nothing to fear. They can only fall under that almighty hand which guides & supports them in all their shortcomings; which leads them towards the goal from which they are straying, & puts them back on the path they have lost. And, in the end, invariably discovers some means whereby to extricate them from the pitfalls to which the efforts & ingenuity of their blinded senses have brought them. Thus they will learn to rely solely on & submit themselves totally to God's infallible guidance.

Jean-Pierre de Caussade

The Sacrament of the Present Moment

And so I understood that every man or woman who chooses God of his own will in this life, for love, may be sure that he himself is loved without end. And this love gives him grace.

For God wills that we should trust in this: that we shall be certain of the joy of heaven. And the more delight & joy we take in this certainty—with reverence & humbleness—the better it pleases him. The reverence I mean is a holy, courteous fear of our Lord. It comes when God's creature sees the Lord as very great, and himself as very small. Julian of Norwich - All Shall Be Well

Entrance Antiphon:

Look at your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

Entrance Hymn

No 463 (Gather) Love Divine All Love's Excelling

Opening Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, whom, taught by the Holy Spirit, we dare to call our Father, bring, we pray, to perfection in our hearts the spirit of adoption as your sons and daughters, that we may merit to enter into the inheritance which you have promised.

First Reading: 1 Kings: 19: 9, 11-13

When Elijah reached Horeb, the mountain of God, he came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Responsorial Psalm: 6:00pm Saturday: Sunday 8.30am, 10.30am

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation

Second Reading: Romans 9: 1-5

I am speaking the truth in Christ. I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit. I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! I hope in the Lord, I trust in his word. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 14: 22-33

Immediately after feeding the crowd with the five loaves and two fish, Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning Jesus came walking towards them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." Jesus said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came towards Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."
