Lest We Forget

On the morning of 25th April 1915, Australian and New Zealand troops landed under fire at Gallipoli. It was then, and in the battles which followed, that the ANZAC tradition was formed.

This is a day when Australians and New Zealanders give thanks for our free and peaceful countries. We remember and honour those who fought to protect our beautiful land.

On this sacred day we remember those who fell:

In the valleys and ridges of Gallipoli,

On the terraced hills of Palestine,

In France and Belgium,

On the sands of the North African desert,

Amidst the mountains and olive groves of Greece, Crete and Syria,

In the skies over Europe, in Singapore,

In the jungles of Malaysia, Indonesia,

Papua New Guinea and the Pacific Islands,

In Korea and Vietnam, Iraq and Afghanistan,

In the skies and seas in the many parts of the world,

And on our own soil and in our sea lanes.

We remember those who suffered as prisoners of war, and those who died in captivity.

We remember service women and men who died bringing aid and comfort to those afflicted by natural disaster.

We remember those who waited at home.

We pray for all who love them.....

May their story continue to inspire and give us hope.

Fr Chris

We welcome you to Sunday's 10.30am ceremony for a special

“Mass for the Fallen”

composed by Father Christopher Willcock sj and performed throughout Australia this weekend .

We welcome the following musicians to our Parish:

Greg McCreanor - cantor

Josie Ryan - soloist

Ian Cox - trumpeter

Sunday's Mass will commemorate Anzac Day.

Entrance Antiphon:

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

Entrance Hymn: No 200 (Gather) Song of the Body of Christ

Opening Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, lead us to a share in the joys of heaven, so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before.

First Reading: Acts 4: 8-12. While Peter and John were speaking to the people about the resurrection of Jesus, the captain of the temple arrested them and placed them in custody. The next day the rulers, elders and scribes assembled. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, “By what power or by what name did you do this?” Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. “This Jesus is ‘the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.’ There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.”

Response: The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

Second Reading: John 3: 1-2. See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 10: 11-18. Jesus said to the Pharisees: “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. “I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. “For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father”.

Offertory Hymn: No 355 (Gather) In Remembrance of You (C Willcock sj)

Communion Antiphon:

The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia!

Communion:

Instrumental:

I Vow To Thee My Country - Jupiter - The Planets - Gustave Holst

Reflection:

We Will Remember Them - The Ode - L Binyon; C Willcock sj

The Last Post:

Ian Cox

Parish Notices

The parish was transformed Thursday night two weeks ago for the first Nourish talk organised by the St Canice's Rooftop Kitchen Garden Committee and IOOSK. (IOOSK is the team behind the organic dinners served in the kitchen on Wednesday nights).

Guests were first welcomed in the rooftop garden where the northern façade of the church was light up with Lilly-Pilli pink. They moved into the Hall for a talk by Clarence Slockee from the Royal Botanic Gardens exploring Sydney's Seasons from an indigenous viewpoint. Actress Mandy McElhinny was master of ceremonies and part of the proceedings included hearing from IOOSK founder Rob Caslick about the plans to extend the outreach of the Kitchen through a new program called Two Good Soups. Three courses of delicious food prepared from rooftop produce and local ingredients were served throughout the night. An amazing team of volunteers led by Tilly Hinton made the night happen.

We'll share more photos and full credits of the production team soon. The support that the Parish Office provided was wonderful and all of the team involved in making this night happen. We would like to say a very special thank you to Elizabeth Strutt for her help to make the night such a success.

Parish Manager: The parish of St Canice is to establish a new full-time position of Parish Manager to be responsible for the running of the parish office and the co-ordination and supervision of the great variety of services and outreach which make up the life of this very vibrant inner city parish. The Manager will work with the Parish Priest in the supervision of other staff and volunteers and will be responsible for a wide range of administrative tasks, including, but not limited to: financial oversight, data entry, volunteer co-ordination, computer skills, parish meeting attendance. Given the nature of the work and the community to be served, a commitment to Church and its social justice outreach would be essential for any candidate for this role. If you are interested please contact the Parish Office on 9358 5229.

St Canice's Vinnies Conference News:

As mentioned over the last few months, the President of our Conference, Bill Barrett, has taken over care of the garage sale next to the church kitchen, previously run by our recently deceased and kindly remembered member, Lawrie Kennedy. As Bill is having a well deserved holiday in Ireland for two months from the beginning of May, this means that this extremely valuable work urgently requires some extra workers during the middle of the day on weekdays. If you have some time available (any time contribution would help!) and are interested please contact our Conference secretary, Mick McIntyre, on 0414853650.

St Canice's Vinnies is again running the Gorman House BBQ for people in recovery from substance addiction, and we welcome you to attend. It is at 11.45am until 1.30pm at St Vincent's Hospital, on Sunday 3rd of May. As always, we hold the BBQ on the first Sunday of every month.

St Canice's Conference will also be holding it's monthly meeting at the Parish House on Tuesday night 28th of May, starting at 6pm. If you are interested in being involved in any of these activities, again, please contact Mick McIntyre on 0414 853 650.

Rome Pilgrimage Tour - 3 June 2015 Departure. There are some vacancies still available on the Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney's Rome Pilgrimage Tour which departs on 03 June 2015. The 7-night tour package includes return economy airfares, accommodation at Domus Australia, all breakfasts and dinners, and all tours including admission. For full details go to www.romepilgrimages.com or telephone 1800 819 156.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations: Today is the 52nd World Day of Prayer for Vocations. In addition to praying for your own vocation, the world-wide Church invites you to pray for those you might know whom God may be calling to a priestly or religious vocation and would benefit from your prayers.

Adult Faith Formation 2015. St Teresa of Avila 2: Bishop David Walker DD, Emeritus Bishop of the Diocese of Broken Bay, will deliver teachings on St Teresa of Avila. St Teresa, a Doctor of the Church, has come to be recognised as one of the great teachers of how to journey to God. Come and join us in exploring the richness of St Teresa's wisdom. All are welcome! The venue for all courses will be The Centre for Christian Spirituality, 14 Frances St, Randwick. St Teresa of Avila 2: The Interior Castle.

Dates: Wednesdays: 29 April, 6 & 13 May 2015, 7.00 – 8.30pm. Course Cost: $25. To register: <http://trybooking.com/GVFO>.
