Mercy in Action

'This painting by Bosnian artist Safet Zec portrays three Jesuits who have been particularly important for the history of the Society. Joseph Pignatelli was the superior for 40 years of the 600 Jesuits who were exiled from Spain in 1767, and has been referred to as patron for displaced persons. In 1829 Jan Roothaan became the second Superior General after the Restoration. Pedro Arrupe became Superior General 50 years ago and, 35 years ago, set up the Jesuit Refugee Service.

'These three are depicted bringing Jesus down from the cross and with his mother, Mary, they remind us that we, Jesuits and lay, are invited to come to the one who was broken and rejected. We come to him to share the pain and loss of that rejection. Like Mary, we do not lose hope in what Jesus is for us and invites us to be. We do not shy away from the pain and suffering He endured but we try, with his grace, to walk together with him expressing his mercy and compassion to others'.

Fr Brian F. McCoy SJ at the Province Gathering, Sydney, December 2015.

What is clear is that Pope Francis does not think like a classicist who sees the world in unchanging categories. He is a storyteller like Jesus, not a philosopher. He thinks in narrative, not philosophical principles. He thinks like a pastor understanding the history of the church but wanting to move with God's people confidently into the future. He trusts that the Spirit is alive and well in the people of God.

Deposition. Safet Zec

Entrance Antiphon

If you, I Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

Entrance Hymn: Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow (Gather) #384

Opening Prayer

May your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works.

First Reading: 2 Kings 5: 14-17

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Arman and a mighty warrior, obeyed Elisha: he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; Naaman came and stood before Elisha and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant." But Elisha said, "As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing!" Naaman urged Elisha to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, "If not, please let two mule-loads of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will no longer offer burnt-offering or sacrifice to any god except the Lord."

Responsorial Psalm:

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2: 8-13

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! For all things give thanks to God, because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 17: 11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When Jesus saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then Jesus said to the Samaritan, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Offertory Hymn: No 391 (Gather) Keep in Mind

The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.
