God's Mercy

God's will. How do we know it? If we are silent within ourselves, and quieten all our desires and all our opinions, and if we think lovingly, with all our soul and without words, "may your will be done", what we then feel without any uncertainty that we must do (even if, in some ways, it may be wrong) is God's will. If we ask him for bread, he does not give us stones... The real greatness of Christianity lies in that it does not look for a supernatural cure for suffering, but a supernatural use for suffering...

Simone Weil

Women Mystics of the Contemporary Era

Brothers and Sisters,
God's face is the face of a merciful father who is always patient. Have you thought about God's patience, the patience he has with each one of us? That is his mercy. He always has patience, patience with us, he understands us, he waits for us, he does not tire of forgiving us if we are able to return to him with a contrite heart. "Great is God's mercy", says the Psalm.

Pope Francis

*Angelus, Sunday
17 March 2013*

Entrance Antiphon

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

Entrance Hymn

No 498 (Gather) City of God

Opening Prayer

O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth.

First Reading: 1 Kings 19: 16. 19-21

The Lord spoke to the prophet Elijah and said, "You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat, as prophet in your place." So Elijah set out from there, and found Elisha, who was ploughing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him. He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." Then Elijah said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?" He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

Response 8:30am

You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Response to the Psalm: 6:00pm & 10:30pm

No 444 (Gather) O Lord, you are the centre of my life

Second Reading: Galatians 5: 1. 13-18

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening; you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 9: 51-62

When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set towards Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Wrap With Love. Are you able to knit? You may like to participate in creating warm knitted blankets by knitting one (or more) 25cm X25cm (10x10 inch) square(s) of plain knitting. Once 28 squares have been completed we will have the squares sewn together to create a colourful warm woollen blanket for those in need. Blankets can be distributed locally or sent abroad via Mission Without Borders. If you would like to participate there will be a box of wool, needles and simple instruction sheet at the back of the church after 10.30am Mass Sunday. We only have 10 sets of wool and needles at present!
 If interested please take the instruction sheet, a pair of needles and a ball of wool. Once completed please return the knitted square(s) and needles to the same place. Alternatively, you may like to donate 8ply wool and size 8 (4mm) needles. For further information please see Christine Moriarty at the back of the church after 10.30am Mass Sunday.

Parish Notices

Thank you to the more than 100 people who attended and supported the parish East Timor Fundraiser Friday 21 June 2013 at the Ron Dyer Parish Centre, North Sydney. Thank you for your generosity and participation. It was a wonderful evening! A short story and photos can be viewed on our St Canice website: www.stcanice.org.au in the News and Events section.

Healing Mass: 11.00am Friday next, 5 July 2013 followed by morning tea in the parish house. All welcome.

Planned Giving. As we approach the end of the financial year we are getting the envelopes ready for the next financial year. Some people have elected to contribute by direct debit, therefore we don't require as many envelopes. Because of this we have reduced the number of envelopes we purchase and as a result we have changed some of your the envelope numbers. Everything else remains the same. We have also had a bit of a hic-cup and lost the details for envelope number 44. Would the person using that envelope please contact Elizabeth or Michael in the parish office so we can process your tax receipt. Our apologies for this problem. Envelopes for next year are on the table at the back of the church.

Spirituality in the Pub. Wednesday 3 July 2013, 7.30pm-9pm at the Paddington Arms Hotel 384 Oxford St Paddington, opposite the Uniting Church.
