Almsgiving & Emptiness

In Pope Francis' message for this Lent, he reminds us of God's logic which is "the logic of love, the logic of incarnation and the cross. God did not let our salvation drop down from heaven, like someone who gives alms from their abundance." It would have been easy for God to give from his riches. Instead he "emptied himself, taking the form of a slave" (Philippians 2:7) so that he could come to us in poverty and weakness. The mystery of God's generosity means that his poverty and weakness becomes our greatest treasure.

To imitate God's generosity, our Lenten prayer and fasting should leave us a little empty; so that we understand our own poverty and dependence on God. Then our almsgiving will come from our solidarity with others' destitution not a sense of superiority.

Pope Francis goes on "Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt." There is the challenge from our Holy Father, who leads us so well by his example!

Some tips for almsgiving:

- Place the Project Compassion box or envelopes in a prominent place at home
- Devise a family plan for extra giving to Project Compassion (i.e. for complaints, unkindness, etc.)
- Clear your wardrobe and give to those in need
- Give time to those in need; make time for the poor, the lonely & those without hope
- Be ready to share the joy of your faith with those around you
- Volunteer your time and energy for a worthwhile project on a regular basis

Fr Chris

Entrance Antiphon

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare. Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor.

Entrance Hymn:

No 413 (Gather) Sing of the Lord's Goodness

Opening Prayer

O God, author of every mercy and of all goodness, who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving have shown us a remedy for sin, look graciously on this confession of our lowliness, that we, who are bowed down by our conscience, may always be lifted up by your mercy.

First Reading: Exodus 17: 3-7

In the wilderness the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?" So Moses cried out to the Lord, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me." The Lord said to Moses, "Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink." Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarrelled and tested the Lord, saying, "Is the Lord among us or not?"

Response: Saturday 6pm: Sunday: 8:30am; 10.30am:

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. No 55 (Gather)

Second Reading: Romans 5: 1-2, 5-8

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Gospel Acclamation

Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ! Lord, you are truly the Saviour of the world; give me living water, that I may never thirst again. Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel: John 4: 5-15, 19-26, 39, 40-42

Jesus came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink". (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink', you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his children and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water. Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem."

Offertory Hymn: No 202 (Gather) Our Supper Invitation

Communion Antiphon:

For anyone who drinks it, says the Lord, the water I shall give will become in him a spring welling up to eternal life.
