The Most Holy Trinity

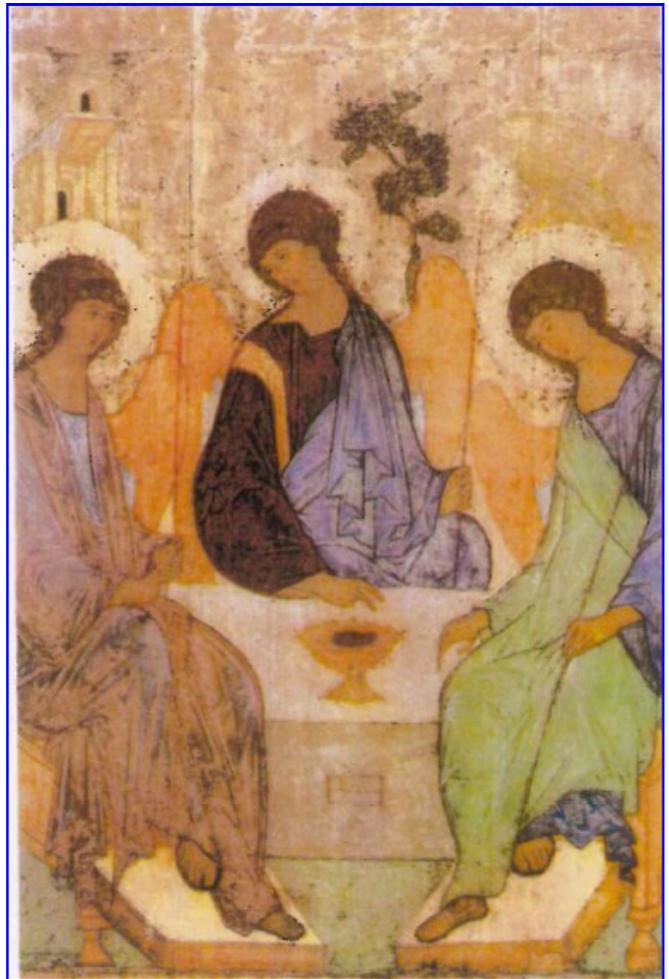

The Community of Love

If we are made in the image of God, we are made in the image of the Trinity; and the life of the Trinity must in some sort be reflected in the pattern of our human life....

Thus to the Father is credited all that we understand by generation, creation, maintenance; and much of our human activity can be seen as co-operation in that work.

Likewise, all human works of compassion, healing, reconciliation, sacrifice, forgiveness, making amends and making good again reflect the work of redemption and reconciliation identified most closely with the Son. And finally, the special role of the Holy Spirit is reflected in every positive idea and inspiration, however slight and humble, in every advance in knowledge and wisdom, in every flash of imagination, in every moment of the heart.

John F. X. Harriott

Entrance Antiphon:

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

Entrance Hymn:

No 382 (Gather) Firmly I Believe and Truly

Opening Prayer:

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty.

First Reading: Exodus 34: 4-6, 8-9

Moses rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the Lord had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. The Lord descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name, "The Lord." The Lord passed before Moses, and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness." And Moses quickly bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped. He said, "If now I have found favour in your sight, O Lord, I pray, let the Lord go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance."

Responsorial Psalm: 6:00pm Saturday, 8.30am: & 10.30am Sunday

Glory and praise for ever!

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13: 11-13

Brothers and sisters, put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 3: 16-18

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. "Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God."

Offertory Hymn:

No 187 (Gather) An Upper Room

Communion Antiphon:

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Communion Hymn:

No 388 (Gather) God With Hidden Majesty

Recessional Hymn:

No 204 (Gather) I Am the Bread of Life

Parish Notices

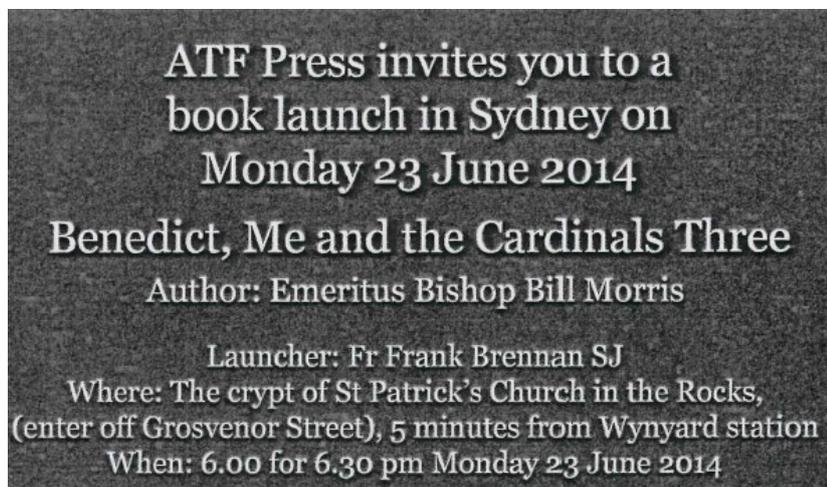

First Holy Communion today: At our 10.30am Mass this morning we welcome seven young girls and boys who will celebrate their First Holy Communion. Our community celebrates this special day with Alice, Amelia, Angelica, Christian, Gus, Henry and Luc and their families. May they always feel our support in their journey of faith among us. We wish to sincerely thank Helen McPake once more for preparing the children for this important occasion in their lives, and for the time and effort she generously puts into their preparation. Thank you Helen!

Vinnies Winter Appeal: The St Vincent de Paul Society is asking us once again to dig deep and donate to their 2014 Winter Appeal. The reasons to give are all around us in our streets and neighbourhoods where people are struggling to keep their heads above water. Vinnies provides comfort and solace to those in our community who need it most: the homeless, the disabled, the unemployed, single-parent families and the shut-ins. Through its home visits, Vinnies provides rent, food and utility vouchers to many thousands in need; please give generously so that they can continue to change lives each day. Next Sunday, members of our parish conference will speak at our Masses about their work in this area.

Save the Date! Faith in the Arts - an evening conversation series on the visual and literary arts and how they illuminate our faith. 7.30pm - 9pm Mondays 4, 11, 18 August 2014. Ron Dyer Centre, 42 Ridge Street, North Sydney. We are delighted to announce our three guest presenters: Michael Christie: sculptor and teacher at the Tom Bass Sculpture Studio School, Erskineville; Jenny Gribble: Honorary Associate Professor of English at the University of Sydney and Fr Andrew Bullen SJ: poet and parish administrator of Our Lady of the Way. Parish contact: Frances Tilly: fraces@sjparishnsw.org.au, 8918 4104.

Jesuit Mission: The Indian Bazaar will be held at Riverview College on Saturday 13 September 2014 and the Indian Elephant Stall is collecting quality items such as silver plated items, china, jewellery, manchester, handbags, table decorations etc to sell at the bazaar. Small lots are fine. Please contact Jesuit Mission on (02) 9955 8585 or Joan on (02) 9955 3641. Alternatively, items can be left at the Parish Office, marked for Jesuit Mission, open Monday to Friday 9.00am - 5.00pm.

A helping hand for a fun day out: If you would like to volunteer your time to work for a few hours at the Sevenhills Winery stall at the Riverview Indian Bazaar this year, Saturday 13 September, please drop an email to Eimer.Boyle@dupont.com and we will book you a slot!

Homeshare recognises that many older people live alone & want to remain in their own homes as long as possible, however many find that family and friends are too far away to give the help, companionship and security they need. The homeshare process matches a householder offering accommodation to a homesharer in exchange for an agreed level of help. The householder may need help with household tasks, or some financial support, or a combination of both. We recently met a lovely married couple in their early 30's who have moved to Sydney to study medicine at Notre Dame University. Chris & Christina have previously homeshared with a gentleman for 5 years and have an excellent reference from his family. For more information please contact Elizabeth on 9358 5229.

City Silence – Catholic Youth Services invites all young adults aged 18-35 to City Silence, Sydney's newest Catholic event held every Tuesday evening (6.30-7.30pm) at St Mary's Cathedral Sydney. City Silence is a weekly Holy Hour led by a different priest each week, and animated by different musicians; it includes times of silence, reflection, scripture, and song; confessions are also available. Immediately following City Silence all are invited for dinner at a local restaurant on Stanley Street. For more information visit www.facebook.com/catholicyouthservices.
