READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

When I prove my holiness among you, I will gather you from all the foreign lands; and I will pour clean water upon you and cleanse you from all your impurities, and I will give you a new spirit, says the Lord.

FIRST READING

Exodus 20:1-3, 7-8, 12-17 (NRSV)

A reading from the book of Exodus

God spoke all these words:
I am the Lord your God,
who brought you out of the land of Egypt,
out of the house of slavery;
you shall have no other gods before me.
You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God,
for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.
Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy.
Honour your father and your mother,
so that your days may be long in the land
that the Lord your God is giving you.
You shall not murder.
You shall not commit adultery.
You shall not steal.
You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.
You shall not covet your neighbour's
house;
you shall not covet your neighbour's wife,
or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey,
or anything that belongs to your neighbour.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 19.7 8 9 10

Response: Lord you have the words of everlasting life.

The law of the Lord is Perfect, reviving the soul; The decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple. Response.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eyes. Response.

The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. Response.

More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb. Response.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 1:22-25 (Year B) (NRSV)

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

John 3:16 (Year B) (NRSV)

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ,
King of Endless glory.
God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son,
that all who believe in him might have eternal life.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ,
King of Endless glory. God

GOSPEL

John 2:13-25 (NRSV)

A reading from the holy gospel according to John

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!" His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The people then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." They then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But Jesus was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken. When he was in Jerusalem during the Passover festival, many believed in his name because they saw the signs that he was doing. But Jesus on his part would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people and needed no one to testify about anyone; for he himself knew what was in everyone.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you. Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, Jesus is the Living Temple, destroyed by the hatred of people, and raised in glory by the Father. May he graciously receive these petitions.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for our Archdiocese, as they participate in the First Scrutiny this weekend, that their hearts may be centred upon Jesus Christ..

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for those without faith, that they may come to know Christ crucified, who is the wisdom of God.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
