READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

At the name of Jesus, every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

FIRST READING

A reading from the first book of the Kings 19:4-8

Strengthened by the food, he walked to the mountain of the Lord.

Elijah went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors."

Then Elijah lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again.

The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat," otherwise the journey will be too much for you." Elijah got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mountain of God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

St Mary MacKillop was beatified on January 19, 1995 by Pope John Paul II and canonized on October 17, 2010 by Pope Benedict XVI, making her Australia's first saint.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9, 10-11

Response: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the LORD at all times; praise shall be always in my mouth. My soul will glory in the LORD that the poor may hear and be glad.

Response

Magnify the LORD with me; let us exalt his name together. I sought the LORD, who answered me, delivered me from all my fears.

Response

Look to God that you may be radiant with joy and your faces may not blush for shame. In my misfortune I called, the LORD heard and saved me from all distress. Response

The angel of the LORD, who encamps with them, delivers all who fear God. Learn to savor how good the LORD is; happy are those who take refuge in him. Response

Fear the LORD, you holy ones; nothing is lacking to those who fear him. The powerful grow poor and hungry, but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing. Response

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians 4:30 - 5:2

Walk in love, just as Christ.

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander; together with all malice, and be kind to one another; tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you.

Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy gospel according to John 6:41-51

I am the living bread come down from heaven.

The people began to complain about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life.

"I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

The Gospel of the Lord

Thanks be to God

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, continuing Jesus' teaching of himself, the Bread of Life, we pray that we who share his meal will make an offering of our life with him to the Father.

1. That we will join with Pope Francis and pray for political leaders, that they will be at the service of their people with a special care for the poor.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

2. That the Church will be supported by vocations to the priesthood so that the Eucharist may be freely available to the people and the word of God proclaimed.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

3. That religious and lay leaders witnesses to Christ across the Holy Land will have courage as they care for the many people suffering the devastation of war.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us

4. That we Christians will all strive to be friends with one another, kind and forgiving, imitating Jesus who offered his life in sacrifice for all humanity.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Celebrant: Almighty God, teach us through your Son, Jesus and nourish us by his Eucharist so that our lives become a fragrant offering and sacrifice to you.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen
