READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

FIRST READING

Wisdom 7:7-11 (NRSV)

A reading from the book of Wisdom

In comparison to wisdom, I held riches as nothing.

I prayed, and understanding was given me;
I called on God, and the spirit of wisdom
came to me.

I preferred her to sceptres and thrones, and I accounted wealth as nothing in comparison with her. Neither did I liken to her any priceless gem, because all gold is but a little sand in her sight, and silver will be accounted as clay before her.

I loved her more than health and beauty,
and I chose to have her rather than light, because her radiance never ceases. All good things came to me along with her;
and in her hands uncounted wealth.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 90.12-13, 14-15, 16-17

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

1. Teach us to count our days that we may gain a wise heart Turn, O Lord! How long?
Have compassion on your servants! R.

2. Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us, and as many years
as we have seen evil. R.

3. Let your work be manifest to your servants, and your glorious power to their children. Let the favour of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands. R.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 4:12-13 (NRSV)

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

The word of God discerns the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before God no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 10:17-27 (NRSV)

A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher; what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother.'" He said to Jesus, "Teacher; I have kept all these since my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor; and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

"When the man heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were greatly astounded and said to one another; "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible."

Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age- houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields- but with persecution- and in the age to come, eternal life."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, the call to follow Jesus requires sacrifice but it also carries the pledge of eternal life.

1. That the distress of war engulfing the Palestine, Israel and Lebanon, Ukraine and Russian, Yemen, Myanmar and Sudan, and the violence of Haiti will give way to peace through dialogue, diplomacy and humility.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

2. That whatever material possessions or money which we have, we will never allow them to control us, but rather we will use them for the good of others, especially the poor and disadvantaged.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

3. That all participating in the Synod in Rome with Pope Francis will, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, explore its themes of communion, participation and mission.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Eternal Father, let your favour be upon us, so that knowing the shortness of our lives, we may have wisdom of heart, and sing your praise with joy. Through Christ our Lord.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
